

CONNECTICUT JUDICIARY COMMITTEE HEARING

FOR CHASE ROGERS

APRIL 10, 2015

BY LOUIS ROMAN AKA JOHN PAUL JONES

"I've yet begun to fight"

THE ATTORNEY'S OATH

You solemnly swear or solemnly and sincerely affirm, as the case may be, that you will do nothing dishonest, and will not knowingly allow anything dishonest to be done in court, and that you will inform the court of any dishonesty of which you have knowledge; that you will not knowingly maintain or assist in maintaining any cause of action that is false or unlawful; that you will not obstruct any cause of action for personal gain or malice; but that you will exercise the office of attorney, in any court in which you may practice, according to the best of your learning and judgment, faithfully, to both your client and the court; so help you God or upon penalty of perjury.

1. This oath is routinely broken every Monday during the Connecticut Judicial Short Calendar in every court in the state by many and hopefully not all Foreclosure Mill attorneys such as Hunt Leibert & Jacobson in Hartford, the largest mill in the state.

2. In the beginning there were bright honest and committed lawyers taking this oath and believing in it. But in a short time they are seduced by promises of money and prestige so that they lose their way and follow a man who has taken over their souls with greed.

While this may be a fictional character one can look to the Hunt Leibert & Jacobson law firm, the largest foreclosure mill in Connecticut and ask ourselves is it true?

3. Hunt Leibert & Jacobson has a long history of ignoring the law and one has to ask if its attorneys can count on one of the members of the Chief Justice Foreclosure Bench Bar Committee to make a call to someone in the Judicial Division, (rumors are that they are judges who are members in the Foreclosure Bench Bar Committee) and suddenly the Foreclosure Docket Judge will ignore the law or facts presented to them and rule for Hunt Leibert & Jacobson. Federal laws mean nothing to Hunt Leibert & Jacobson, no original documents, no problem the judge will legalize the paper as "an original" with no professional or scientific forensic knowledge or experience. No note because of a discharged debt because of a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy, no problem, the judge will grant them the "Strict Foreclosure" that they demanded without a debt. Defendant tries to pay off the total amount demanded in Certified Funds but is refused by the Hunt Leibert & Jacobson law firm, no problem. They are not trying to collect a debt but are trying to inflict pain on the homeowner by using the Judicial Division as a tool, no problem. Using fraudulent document to foreclose, no problem if Hunt Leibert & Jacobson wants it they get it AS COMMISSIONERS OF THE COURT!

4. Defendants asking for "Evidentiary Hearings" No problem, the judge is not interested in evidence or due process under the U.S. Constitution 14th Amendment, why bother? We need to keep the Chief Justice happy and she wants to keep her foreclosure mill members of the "Foreclosure Bench Bar Committee" happy.

5. Connecticut proudly holds the top position of violators of the "Color of Law" which is the appearance that the law is being followed and administrated fairly and justly but in fact is the complete opposite.

The Connecticut Judicial Division under Chief Justice Chase Rogers and it is rumored that it has become "Corrupticut", a state where some people say influence and contacts mean more than the law and where justice is just a word and "Pro Se is a dirty word according to Chief Justice Rogers during her 2012 Annual Judge's Meeting".

We the members of the "PRO SE GROUP DEMAND THAT GOVERNOR MALLOY NOT REAPPOINT CHASE ROGERS TO THE CONNECTICUT SUPREME COURT FOR ANOTHER TERM AND IN FACT THAT HE SHOULD ASK HER TO RESIGN FOR THE DAMAGE THAT HER ADMINISTRATION HAS DONE TO THE CONNECTICUT JUDICIAL SYSTEM AND FOR ALLOWING THE FORECLOSURE MILLS TO ENRICH THEMSELVES AT THE EXPENSE OF HOMEOWNERS AND VOTERS.
